

AfriComNet Scholarship Application Form

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

- Applicants should demonstrate a capacity for leadership, and a commitment to improving the lives of others.
- Applicants from any African country are eligible to apply but priority is given to AfriComNet members.
- Participants must have obtained a Bachelor degree, or its equivalent, from a recognized university.
- Participants are expected to be intellectually curious, emotionally mature, and possess a willingness to challenge, and to reflect on the wider implications of their subject.
- The selectors are looking for people who recognize that strategic communication is vital for health and development.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

- Participants apply for admission to AfriComNet through the normal admission procedures. There is one standardized form for admission which should include a 200 word essay and two letters of reference. All of these application materials are reviewed together at every stage of the application process.
- Two letters of recommendation are required. One must be from a person who has worked with you. The other should be from your employer or immediate line manager who can comment on personal qualities such as leadership potential and social commitment.
